ADVOCACY
The Burbank Chamber of Commerce is charged with acting as your advocate for business on the local, state and federal levels of government. In an effort to ensure your voice is heard, the Burbank Chamber of Commerce has established a proactive legislative committee for monitoring legislation and issues that may affect business profitability in the community.

Your Chamber works diligently to monitor and protect local businesses from experiencing financial hardships as a result of governmental actions on all levels.

The voice of many is much more powerful than the voice of a few. By working with your Chamber, you can be certain your voice is heard, making a difference in the legislative process.

RIBBON CUTTING
The Chamber is delighted to assist members in celebrating grand openings and anniversaries with ribbon cutting including civic leaders.
